

World Hockey

The magazine of the International Hockey Federation

- World Cup in 1971
- Pakistan tour of Europe
- A Game for Gladiators

- Push-in may replace Roll-in
- Japanese girls tour Australia
- U.S.S.R. win test

AROUND THE CONTINENTS

AFRICA

Northern Transvaal finished top in the African inter-provincial tournament at Port Elizabeth in August. For the tournament, a squad of 35 players was named to prepare for future touring and outgoing tours. South Africa are to appoint a National Coach

Africans took part when the Hockey Umpires Association held a theory examination on an outside basis.

Fernandes, the Kenyan international, was given a six week suspension from the Nairobi H.A. when his club failed to produce a new ball.

Angels, an English club, claimed an impressive victory when they beat the Moroccan National team at Casablanca. Angels are one of the most widely travelled clubs in the world. They have been to West Indies, U.S.A., South Africa and Rhodesia in the last two years.

Angels, an English club, claimed an impressive victory when they beat the Moroccan National team at Casablanca. Angels are one of the most widely travelled clubs in the world. They have been to West Indies, U.S.A., South Africa and Rhodesia in the last two years.

The sixth Proteas (South African Universities tour) commenced on Dec. 3 when 15 strong men's and women's teams sailed from Cape Town for Europe. Each side has one Springbok international.

The Dominoes, a private hockey team from Great Britain of international strength, visited South Africa in July and August. The former G.B. manager, Jonah Jones, was in charge of the party.

Johannesburg Wanderers, who toured Europe this year, are contemplating a return visit to that continent to take part in an anniversary tournament being organised by the Egara club of Spain, in 1971 or '72. They expect also to visit Germany, Netherlands and England.

Two clubs who used the 4-2-3-1 formation dominated the South African Premier hockey league this summer. The winners were Johannesburg Wanderers.

Angels, an English club, claimed an impressive victory when they beat the Moroccan National team at Casablanca. Angels are one of the most widely travelled clubs in the world. They have been to West Indies, U.S.A., South Africa and Rhodesia in the last two years.

Former Kenyan international, Amar Singh, has emigrated to Canada and not to Britain as reported in the first issue of World Hockey.

ASIA

The Nawab of Pataudi, India's cricket captain, scored the only goal when Bombay Gymkhana played Tiger XI in an exhibition match at Bhopal. The Nawab was playing centre half and converted a penalty corner.

Two Pakistan internationals, Riazuddin and Hamid, were suspended for six months for allegedly assaulting an international umpire, S.M. Khurram. After the players had unconditionally apologised the suspension was lifted.

Police baton-charged hockey fans who hurled chairs and smashed up offices when darkness stopped play in a match in Bombay this year.

Pakistan have received coaching requests from Malaysia, Ceylon, Nepal, Indonesia, U.A.R., Italy and Argentina. Earmarked for appointments are Nabi Kallat, Sh. Rehmatullah, and two former Olympians, Abdul Rashid and A.G. Khan. Rashid, a member of Pakistan's gold medal winning side in 1960, is going to Indonesia for two months. Munir Dar, the former Pakistan captain is to coach in Italy for a month each year.

Two teams to visit Ceylon during August and September were the Bhilai Steel Plant H.A. team from India and the Singapore Joint Services team.

West Germany and U.A.R. are scheduled to visit Pakistan in the near future said Col. Atif, manager of the Pakistan touring team, at the conclusion of their tour. Two other countries, Netherlands and Belgium, are likely to visit Pakistan before the Munich Olympics.

Malaysia are considering holding an international tournament.

Former England international, Vivian Smith, has played for Hong Kong while serving there as a British officer.

Lt. Col. Hamid, the former Olympic player, has retained the Pakistan Army squash title which he has held since 1953.

A Pakistan youth team may tour the United Kingdom next year.

AUSTRALASIA

New Zealand Universities lost only one of their 11 matches in Australia in August. Their final match, against Combined Australian Universities, was drawn.

The Australian championships, held in Melbourne in August, were full of surprises. Western Australia won the title.

The New Zealand club side, University of Canterbury, who are coached by former international C.V. Walter, have no less than eight current internationals in their ranks.

The new secretary of the New Zealand H.A. is Wayne Burt who just missed selection for the New Zealand cricket team to England this year. He is a nephew of former Test cricketer, Tom Burt.

Dr. L. McH Berry has been appointed chairman of the New Zealand H.A.'s management committee. He is a former President of the N.Z.H.U.A.

Japi Leemhuis, former Netherlands Olympic player and now an economist with the Shell Oil Company, is moving from Britain to Australia in December.

EUROPE

Real Madrid, the world famous football and basketball club, have formed a hockey section.

A new rules book for indoor hockey is to be published in three languages in November.

